The undersigned agrees to the following...

- To abide by the rules, regulations, procedures and directions of officials at each event.
- Will be responsible to report any changes in the information required on this form to series officials.
- Will be held responsible for any court and/or service cost accrued as a result of litigation against the series and in the collection of any fees owed to the series as a result of a returned or cancelled check.
- Official's decisions regarding penalties, fines, suspensions and/or rule amendments are final.
- CRUSA has a ZERO tolerance policy regarding chemical treatment and/or alteration of tires and that a tire sniffer and/or independent lab test will be used to check tires. I also understand and agree to race at any CRUSA event, under the stated terms and tire testing policy. I understand that all officials' decisions are final, and that there is no appeal process or any other method used to test tires.
